About the aircraft accident in Mielec airport, Poland July 21, 2017

On the morning of July 21, 2017, we received sad news - our Polish dealer Piotr Pikul and his son died in an airplane accident while flying a Tarragon YL-RCT at Mielec airport, Poland.

As of yet, the reason for the crash is unknown, but an investigation is currently ongoing. We will work in cooperation with the local authorities to determine the cause of the accident.

The airplane has been serviced as necessary, and had a valid airworthiness certificate.

We are together in our prayers with Piotr, his son and family in this difficult time.
